

INTENDED RELOCATION

Motion for Ex Parte Order Allowing Change of Children's Principal Residence

- You are the custodial parent;
- You have given proper notice of intent to relocate;
- You want to move during the 60-day objection period; and
- The objecting party has not set a hearing date within 15 days of their being served the Notice of Intent to Move with Children

SPOKANE COUNTY FAMILY COURT FACILITATOR: INSTRUCTION

You have provided notice of your plan to move and a proposed new parenting plan. You are moving outside of the child's school district. The move will affect the other parent's rights. You need an emergency order letting you move with the child(ren) before the sixty-day objection period is up.

Checklist of Steps to Complete:

_____ 1. Fill out the following papers completely. Print clearly in black ink or type.

- () Motion for Immediate Order Allowing Move with Children – Before Objection Deadline (Ex Parte Relocation) (FL Relocation 704)
- () Immediate Order on Motion to Move with Children – Before Objection Deadline (Ex Parte Relocation) (FL Relocation 705)

Describe all the reasons you need an emergency order letting you move with the child before the sixty-day objection period is up.

Example: The other parent was arrested for aggravated assault against you. You fear for your health and safety if you stay in your current location.

Another example: You are about to lose your housing. You cannot wait the full sixty days to move. The other party probably will not object.

_____ 2. Make two copies (original plus two copies) of the documents.

_____ 3. Take the original of each document to Courtroom 304, (the Ex Parte Courtroom) between 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. and 1:30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, to have the Court sign the Immediate Order on Motion to Move with Children – Before Objection Deadline (Ex Parte Relocation).

After the Court has signed the Order, take your copies to Room 300, between the hours of 8:30 a.m. – 12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday and stamp the name of the Judge/Commissioner who signed the Order and put the date stamp on the top, front page of each of your copies.

NOTE: All of the above mentioned forms can be found on the Washington State Court website: www.courts.wa.gov/forms.

The Family Court Facilitator, Room 200, Family Law Center, is available to review your documents and answer procedural questions. It is recommended you have all documents reviewed before filing and presenting to the court.
